 - Will host a school play in the spring – Willie Wonka
 - There have been a lot of behavioral issues lately. We need to be strict and strong with the discipline rubric. Things need to be black and white.
 - Report cards are being printed. Will get with the Star assessments at conferences.
 - Veteran's day was a success.
 - Student of the month – first round went really well.

- Book fair is going on now through next week.

VI. Advancement Sub-Committee Update – Stephanie Serra

- New kindergartener started this week.
- We will soon have a donation page on our website. We are getting help from the AOD for this.
- Open house is January 29th from 1-3pm. Will need people for tours. Enrollment opens at 8am for new families.
- The Stable is doing well and will be open for conferences.
- Christmas Shoppe is Dec. 2nd.

VII. Catholic Culture Sub-Committee Update – Emelie Krull

- Has a call in with the Divine Mercy Shrine to organize a project with the younger kids. Thinking of a peel and stick ornament with 1st grade.
- Moms are asking for an adoration for the kids. Maybe 1st Fridays?
- Working with Lisa R. on doing Epiphany Chalk again. One per family.
- Rachel Z. would like a basket for prayer intentions in each classroom. The goal would then be to bring up a basket of all classroom intentions each week at mass.
- Marie is going to make decals of classroom saints for each room. Need a list.

VIII. Strategic Planning Sub-Committee Update – Claudia Tapia

IX. Properties and Facilities Sub-Committee Update – Dominic Paone

- Signs are working outside, will need to de-program them for the summer.
- Trying to meet to work on a new master plan. Met yesterday to work on the middle school cafeteria. Hopefully we will start working on it this summer. Do a refresh and bring it up to code.
